Education Support Personnel of Clover Park

2024-2025

Hello!

Welcome to the Clover Park School District! My name is Irene Oda and I am the President of your local union, Education Support Personnel of Clover Park (ESPCP)

ESPCP is over 600 plus member strong your membership we will grow even stronger. If you have not already done so, I invite you to join other union members in shaping our work. Go to www.washingtonea.org/eJoin to start your member benefits today.

From the form, here are commonly asked questions:

Your Local Association:	ESP OF CLOVER PARK
Membership Subclass:	Educational Support Professional

You are represented by a member elected executive committee and a representative council made up of building representatives from each worksite. ESPCP represents a wide range of groups employed including bus drivers, paraeducators, (regular ed and special ed), professional technical, LPN's, secretarial/clerical, IT , food service, mechanics, ECEAP and Headstart.

I am a part-time release president and my office is located inside the Soundview UniServ Office where Washington Education Association employs staffing to support us.

Not only do you have a voice in your working conditions but also access to many member benefits including lawyers and money savings. More information can be found at www.mysoundview.org.

I look forward to working with you,

Irene Oda, ESPCP President

LOCALS & COUNCILS

UniServ Councils—represent a group of local unions. They provide staff assistance, professional development training, and promote, strengthen and advance the rights of educators in public education.

SOUNDVIEW

UniServ is short for Unified Services. The state program was initiated to provide councils and locals with a professional staff person in your area.

UniServ Directors assist local leaders and members in negotiations, engaging members, grievances, organizational development and communications.

Council leaders support local unions with communications, professional development, community outreach, and more.

The Council supports political action by

- Lobbying
- PAC Meetings with legislatures and members
- Supporting Pro-Education Candidates
- Pierce County Labor Council Affiliation
